

www.kmcharityteam.co.uk/schools

Win a celebrity story time

Join in walk to school and reading competitions this term for the chance to win a visit from a celebrity storyteller. Classes top or most improved for green travel or reading will win a story time with CBeebies' star Joanna Adeyinka-Burford of The Let's Go Club, top panto performer Ben Roddy, or singer and television presenter Cheryl Baker. Find out more at www.kmcharityteam.co.uk

Be the boss of Diggerland

Pupils have the chance to be the boss of Diggerland for a day by entering a fun writing competition. All they need to do is write about the superhero they would most like to walk to school with and why. Entries must be handwritten on a form which can be downloaded from www.kmcharityteam.co.uk/writingcomp

Enter cooking contest

Children aged six and up can enter Young Cooks for the chance to cook for VIPs and win a share of £500. Categories are Primary School, Secondary School, and Families for adult and child teams. The best entries will be invited to a Masterchef-style final where they will cook for a panel of judges. Every entry will be published on the Young Cooks website. Visit www.youngcooks.org.uk and child teams. The best entries will be invited to a Masterchef-style final where they will cook for a panel of judges. Every entry will be published on the Young Cooks website. Visit www.youngcooks.org.uk

Chase the rainbow

Raise money for our PTA - or any good cause of your choice - by taking part in the family-friendly KM Colour Run on Sunday 10 June. You can walk, jog, or run the colourful 5K route at Betteshanger Park near Deal. Booking price includes a souvenir t-shirt, sunglasses, and commemorative medal. Book at www.kmcharityteam.co.uk/booking

Supported by

