

The children have been doing some writing about their observations of the ducklings. They have used their sounds to write sentences.

I sor sum duk undur the boomur. I sor sum ducks drinking. By Dylan

(I saw some duck under the brooder. I saw some ducks drinking)

They wur driking sum wortur. I sor 2 ducks eetin duck food. The ducks wur undur the boomur. By Rohan

(They were drinking some water. I saw two ducks eating duck food. The ducks were under the brooder.)

The dux are driking wortur. They are eeting food. Sum dus are sitin unur the boomer. By Atreyu

(The ducks are drinking water. They are eating food. Some ducks are sitting under the brooder)

I saw sum yellow fluffy duckling. There was one wight duck. They wur qacking to there frens. By Stella

(I saw some yellow fluffy ducklings. There was one white duck. They were quacking to their friends.)