

Saturday 11th and Sunday 12th March 2017

The ducklings all woke up feeling refreshed and ready to go. They spent most of the weekend enjoying the sunshine.

Mrs McLevy thought the ducklings might like to have a go at perfecting their swimming skills in the bath.

Some were a bit nervous to start with but it wasn't long before they were all enjoying a swim.

Drying off and then time for a long nap! Its tiring work learning to swim!

The ducklings had a lovely weekend in the McLevy house!
