

Tuesday 14th March 2017

The ducklings are continuing to grow – eating and drinking lots!

They are always happy to see people and have enjoyed coming out to say hello to the children again. As the weather has got a little warmer the ducks spent a lot of time paddling in water today keeping themselves cool.

The ducklings obviously like being in the water and they are happy chasing each other in the water and perfecting their swimming skills.

