

Look at our writing.

Reception children have been exploring how to write words using their phonemes to help them. We use lots of different ways to record our writing. We are enjoying learning new phonemes through the Letters and Sounds programme.