

Number walk

Foundation Stage pupils have been exploring the school environment looking for different numbers. We were amazed at how many we found.

How many can you find around your house?