

N'gonzini School in Kenya

Garlinge pupils have recently raised £105 for the N'gonzini School in Kenya. The money raised has been used to produce a tourist guide for their local elephant sanctuary.

As well as providing an education, the school also trains the children for work in the tourist industry.