A Small Dragon by Brian Patten

I've found a small dragon in the woodshed. Think it must have come from deep inside a forest because it's damp and green and leaves are still reflecting in its eyes.

I fed it on many things, tried grass, the roots of stars, hazel-nut and dandelion, but it stared up at me as if to say, I need foods you can't provide.

It made a nest among the coal, not unlike a bird's but larger, it is out of place here and is mosttimes silent.

If you believed in it I would come hurrying to your house to let you share this wonder, but I want instead to see if you yourself will pass this way.
