

Duck Diary Day 3

The ducklings had an exciting day today. They came out to see the children in Reception and they had lots of visitors.

Afterwards the ducklings needed some food and a big rest under the brooding plate.

In the afternoon the ducklings had learnt to jump on top of the brooding plate and were having a good look around the classroom.