

Duck Diary Day 9

The ducklings are continuing to grow very quickly and are starting to grow their waterproof feathers, this is very useful for them when they go for an early morning swim.

They had a visit from our Forest School friends today.

We are all surprised at how quickly the ducklings have grown and are changing on a daily basis.