

Duck Diary Day – Ducklings in their new homes

All the ducklings have gone to their new homes now and are settling in nicely. Their new owners have sent us some picture to show us how happy they are.

This is Marshmallow and Lightening.

This is Daisy and Donald.

The last two ducks went home with Mrs Browning. She was very happy to take them to their new home and her children were very happy to be looking after them.

This is Cupcake and Buttercup.

Cupcake and Buttercup have been enjoying a swim in their new home.

All six ducklings have settled into their new homes and I am sure they will continue to grow rapidly. We have enjoyed having them with us and like seeing the pictures we are sent. We can't wait to see them when they are fully grown.
