

Patterns are all around us!

This week in our maths work we have been learning about patterns – we had fun matching pairs of wellies. Which patterns can you see? Spots? Stripes? Strawberries?!

We designed our own pairs of matching socks

See if you can spot any patterns around your home or when you are outside.