

We loved dressing up in our costumes to show our friends our favourite book characters – can you guess which characters we were? Even the grownups joined in!

We enjoyed sharing stories with our friends and telling them why we liked the books.