

Working on the Building Site

Reception have been spending lots of time outside this term. We have been very busy playing in our builder's yard. We love designing lots of different things and using bricks, crates, pipes and wood to build with.

