

Exploring Capacity

In Reception we have been learning all about capacity. We had so much fun filling lots of different containers using water, sand and rice. We found out which containers could hold the most and least and used language such as full, half-full and empty.

