The City Farm by Brian Moses

We saw goats and ducks and chickens on our school trip to the city farm. "Watch out for the goose – he goes for your knees!" we turned round in alarm.

But the goose must have been really tired and although he opened one eye to gaze long and hard at all of us, he decided to let us slip by.

We watched the cows being milked and a goat took food from our hands. We spread seed around for the chickens and bottle-fed baby lambs.

We stared at a huge mother sow with ten piglets all running about, then tried to sneak back past the goose but he honked and chased us all out.

 2 What reason is given for the goose letting the children slip by? 3 Look at the second verse. What does the word "gaze" mean? Choose one. hiss honk peck stare 4 Find and copy two animals the children fed. 5 Choose which of the following facts are true and which are false. 5 Choose which of the following facts are true and which are false. The goose sometimes attacks people's knees. The goose attacked the children as they went into the farm. The children fed the goose. The goose chased the children away from the farm. 	Nam	ie:	Class:	De	ate:
 2 What reason is given for the goose letting the children slip by? 3 Look at the second verse. What does the word "gaze" mean? Choose one. hiss honk peck stare 4 Find and copy two animals the children fed. 5 Choose which of the following facts are true and which are false. 5 Choose which of the following facts are true and which are false. 5 Choose sometimes attacks people's knees. The goose cometimes attacks people's knees. The goose attacked the children as they went into the farm. The children fed the goose. The goose chased the children away from the farm. 6 Which animal do you think the children will remember best? 					1b
 3 Look at the second verse. What does the word "gaze" mean? Choose one. hiss	2 W	/hat reason is given for the goose letting the children slip by?			1 mark
 Find and copy two animals the children fed. Choose which of the following facts are true and which are false. Choose sometimes attacks people's knees. The goose attacked the children as they went into the farm. The children fed the goose. The goose chased the children away from the farm. Which animal do you think the children will remember best? 	W Cl hi pe	Vhat does the word "gaze" mean? hoose one . ss onk eck			1 mark
The goose sometimes attacks people's knees. The goose attacked the children as they went into the farm. The children fed the goose. The goose chased the children away from the farm. 6 Which animal do you think the children will remember best?					1 mark
The goose attacked the children as they went into the farm. The children fed the goose. The goose chased the children away from the farm. 6 Which animal do you think the children will remember best?	5 Cł	hoose which of the following facts are true and which are false .]
The children fed the goose. The goose chased the children away from the farm. 6 Which animal do you think the children will remember best?	1	The goose sometimes attacks people's knees.
The goose chased the children away from the farm. 6 Which animal do you think the children will remember best?	T	The goose attacked the children as they went into the farm.
6 Which animal do you think the children will remember best?	T	The children fed the goose.			1b
	Г	The goose chased the children away from the farm.			2 marks
					1e